Run, Rock n Raise – 11 September at Metro Radio Arena

We're proud to have partnered with The Graham Wylie Foundation to promote the inaugural Run, Rock n Raise charity fundraising gig at the Metro Radio Arena and you could win tickets to join us!

The event, billed as the Great North Run's official "after party" is taking place later in the same day as the half marathon, on Sunday 11 September. Not only are the Kaiser Chiefs at the Great North Run, but the band is performing at Run, Rock n Raise at the Arena, along with Kodaline and Whitley Bay's Lisbon, to raise money for three deserving charities. All money raised is going to the Graham Wylie Foundation, which helps vulnerable and underprivileged children in the North East, the Teenage Cancer Trust and music therapy charity Nordoff Robbins.

Run, Rock n Raise posters are on our buses across the region to promote the event and you could be there too – tickets are on sale now for the show which starts at 6.30pm on Sunday 11 September with tickets costing £25 and £35.

- It's easy to get there with us – use our new Journey Planner.
