

Feb 17, 2016 12:11 GMT

Win a family ticket to see Impossible at Sunderland Empire

Impossible, the most dangerous show the West End has ever seen, will play the Sunderland Empire (23-27 February 2016) featuring the world's greatest illusionists live on stage in a magic spectacular that will thrill and amaze audiences of all ages.

Fusing death-defying stunts, technological trickery, grand stage illusions and close-up magic in a fast-paced breath-taking performance, Impossible reinvents the biggest illusions in history in the greatest magic show on earth.

Fresh from its ground-breaking run in London's West End, audiences should prepare to be mesmerized and baffled as Impossible brings together world-class performers showing off a stunning range of magical artistry.

Competition

We've got a family ticket up for grabs to see Impossible at Sunderland Empire on Tuesday 23 February.

- Enter now

Family offer

- Kids go half price! Half price ticket for under 16s, up to 2 children's tickets with one full price paying adult. Bands A-C (Tue-Thu). Impossible is suitable for ages 6+.

Booking Information

Tickets on sale now and available in person at the Box Office on High Street West, from the Ticket Centre on 0844 871 3022* or online*

*Calls cost 7p per minute plus your standard network charge. Booking fees may apply to telephone and online bookings

T&C: Tickets are non-transferable.

Go North East website