

Jan 18, 2016 08:54 GMT

WIN! Just guess how many balls...

To celebrate the start of the Australian Open tennis tournament this week, we have a ballsy competition for you. Don't make a 'racquet' about it, just simply tell us how many balls are in this jar. For the person who guesses the correct number of balls, or the closest number, it's Game, Set and Match!

Go North East has teamed up with the premier tennis, squash and badminton club in Newcastle, The Northumberland Club, to offer three fantastic prizes:

- A month's free Couples' Gold Membership at The Northumberland Club, worth £120.
- A week's free travel with Go North East, worth £32.

- 50 free Fini Lime and Lemon Bubble Gum tennis ball sweets.

The Gold Couples' Membership includes use of all of courts (squash, tennis, badminton) and the gym and bar/lounge at The Northumberland Club in Jesmond.

Now, get your eyeballs on the balls, head to Facebook or Twitter and give us your best guess!

Terms and Conditions

- One entry per person, per social media channel.
- Closing date for entries is 12 noon on Monday 25 January.
- Entries can be made only by commenting on the competition Facebook post or by retweeting the competition tweet, and replying with your guess.
- If more than one person guesses the correct number of balls or there are multiple guesses that are equally as close to the correct number then these entries will be put into a draw and a winner chosen at random.
- No cash alternative will be offered.

Go North East website